Questions:
1. Does the population of the neighbourhood affect the amount of covid cases (this includes probable and confirmed cases)? Does the income level of the neighbourhood affect the amount of covid cases?
2. Which neighbourhoods have the most fatal cases?
3. Is the fatality different for different scenarios? Such as by the source of infection type or whether one is elderly?